Final answers with a one-line reason. Full method is in the Notes.

Objective

- Q1 (b) 1526 — Babur defeated Ibrahim Lodi at the First Battle of Panipat.
- Q2 (a) 1-B, 2-A — Konark = Narasimhadeva I; Baburnama = Babur.
- Q3 Bukka — Harihara & Bukka founded Vijayanagara (1336).
- Q4 Sulh-i-kul — Akbar's policy of tolerance / "peace with all".
- Q5 Gobind — Guru Gobind Singh formed the Khalsa in 1699.
- Q6 (b) Battle of Talikota — Deccan Sultanates defeated Vijayanagara.
- Q7 (a) Both correct and R explains A — terrain + guerrilla tactics won Saraighat.
- Q8 (c) is incorrect — the Mughal Empire was founded by Babur, not Tughlaq.
- Q9 (b) Mansabdari system — Akbar's rank-based officer/army system.
- Q10 (c) Abul Fazl — wrote the Ain-i-Akbari.

Short Answer

- Q11 Mamluks (Slave dynasty) → Khiljis → Tughlaqs → Sayyids → Lodis.
- Q12 Paik system: every able-bodied man gave labour or military service to the state in exchange for land rights. It let the ruler build infrastructure and keep a large force without a permanent standing army.
- Q13 A hundi was a written instruction to make a payment. It could be carried across political borders, so merchants transferred funds without physically carrying currency — safer from plunder (an early form of banking).

Long Answer

- Q14 Iqta (Delhi Sultanate): land assigned to nobles (iqtdars) to collect taxes for the Sultan; posts not hereditary. Mansabdari (Akbar): officers ranked by mansab, kept a set number of troops/horses, paid via land (jagir) → jagirdars; enabled a quick army without a permanent central force.

Q15 Krishnadevaraya (16th c.): expanded & secured the empire over the Deccan; military power + cultural renaissance; patronised Sanskrit, Telugu, Kannada; wrote the Telugu epic Āmuktamālyada; gave grants to temples (Tirupati, Vitthala).

Q16 (1) Shifting the capital to Daulatabad (Devagiri) — people forced to travel 1,000+ km; he later moved it back → great loss of life. (2) Token currency — cheap copper coins declared equal to silver/gold → counterfeiting & confusion → economy declined.

Very Long Answer

Q17 Akbar: early brutality (Chittor massacre) → as he grew in knowledge he rejected forcing his faith; abolished jizya, promoted sulh-i-kul, made Rajput marriage alliances, appointed Hindu officials, held interfaith dialogues, built a "house of translation" → a larger, more stable empire with broad support.

OR — Sikhs: Guru Nanak (15th c.) preached equality & Ik Onkār; persecution forced Guru Hargobind to raise an army; Guru Tegh Bahadur martyred (1675) defending Kashmiri Pandits; Guru Gobind Singh formed the Khalsa (1699); later Maharaja Ranjit Singh unified the confederacies into the Sikh Empire (1799).

Passage & Map

Q18 (i) 1576. (ii) The Bhils. (iii) Guerrilla warfare from the Aravalli hills.

Q19 Delhi = north India (on the Yamuna); Hampi/Vijayanagara = Karnataka, south; Panipat = north of Delhi (Haryana). Award 1 mark each for correct location + label.
